DEAR PAW'S CORNER:
Why do Americans spend so much money on their pets? Couldn't they save more money if they didn't indulge their dog or cat with designer sweaters, booties, premium dog food and trendy grooming? - Caryn B., via email

DEAR CARYN: It's true that Americans spend more on their pets than anyone else in the world. According to the American Pet Products Association, spending in 2019 reached $95.7 billion. Owners spend most of their money on pet food and treats, totaling $36.9 billion last year. Another expensive item is veterinary care and related product sales (like medications), with $29.3 billion spent. Why do we spend so much money? Ask any owner, and they'll give you roughly the same answer. Our pets are a part of our family. We are dedicated to them, just as they are dedicated to us. We don't want to see them suffer, and like any beloved family member, we are willing to spend far more money on their health and comfort than we would on ourselves. Designer doggie sweaters aren't just stylish, they protect our dogs from the elements, and the higher-priced sweaters tend to be more comfortable and better fitting. Booties prevent cuts to the pads on their paws when walking in the city or on icy pavement, minimizing pain and possible infections. High-quality dog food costs more, but the payoff is in better overall health and a longer life. And grooming, for the most part, plays a key part in keeping pets healthier and more comfortable. So sure, we're spending a lot of money. But Americans look for a balance of value for what we spend, and clearly, pet owners are finding great value in spending a bit more to keep their beloved pets healthy and happy. ©2020 King Features

Strange But True

by Lucie Winborne

• The tea bag was an accidental invention. In 1908, tea merchant Thomas Sullivan distributed his samples in small silken sacks. His customers, not realizing they were samples, dunked them in hot water, and Sullivan soon found himself swamped with orders for his "tea bags"! • In 1883, Bill Kinsman of Tombstone, Arizona, was the subject of a practical joke when the Tombstone Epitaph announced his intention to marry one May Woodman. The surprised future groom countered with a notice of his own that he had no such plans whatsoever - and was soon after shot by the deeply humiliated Ms. Woodman. ©King Features

Psalm 23

A psalm of David.

The Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing. He makes me lie down in green pastures, He leads me beside quiet waters, He refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the darkest valley, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Our Daily Bread

Free from Fear

Read: Psalm 34:1-10

I sought the Lord, and He answered me; He delivered me from all my fears. Psalm 34:4

Fear sneaks into my heart without permission. It paints a picture of helplessness and hopelessness. It steals my peace and my concentration. What am I fearful about? I'm concerned about the safety of my family or the health of loved ones. I panic at the loss of a job or a broken relationship. Fear turns my focus inward and reveals a heart that sometimes finds it hard to trust.

When these fears and worries strike, how good it is to read David's prayer in Psalm 34: "I sought the Lord, and he answered me; he delivered me from all my fears" (v. 4). And how does God deliver us from our fears? When we "look to him" (v. 5), when we focus on Him, our fears fade; we trust Him to be in control. Then David mentions a different type of fear—not a fear that paralyzes, but a deep respect and awe of the One who surrounds us and delivers us (v. 7). We can take refuge in Him because He is good (v. 8).

This awe of His goodness helps put our fears into perspective. When we remember who God is and how much He loves us, we can relax into His peace. "Those who fear him lack nothing" (v. 9), concludes David. How wonderful to discover that in the fear of the Lord we can be delivered from our fears. By Keila Ochoa Lord, I'm aware of my worries and fears, and I place them in Your hands. Give me peace as I face the day.

Ask God to free you from your fears.

Strange But True

by Lucie Winborne

- In his travels, Marco Polo believed at one point that he had stumbled across unicorns, writing that "They are very ugly brutes to look at. They are not at all such as we describe unicorns." Not surprising, considering that he was actually viewing rhinoceroses.
- Alexandre Dumas, best known for "The Three Musketeers" and "The Count of Monte Cristo," felt very strongly that all his works must be presented on colored paper. He wanted all his fiction presented on blue paper, his articles on pink paper and his poetry on yellow paper.
- Turning back the giant hands on Big Ben's four clock faces takes an astonishing total of five hours. ©2020 King Features

Outdoor Opportunities By COL (Ret.) Grey D. Berrier II

The PFBC Announce Changes to Trout Stocking and Trout Season Due to COVID-19

These are surreal times in which we are currently living. Each day we learn new things about the COVID-19 Coronavirus and the many ways it is significantly impacting our lives and the lives of others around our state, our country, and our world. While it would be easy to go off on a tangent regarding COVID-19, I'm going to follow the advice given in the GEICO commercial, where the tattoo artist tells his customer, "Stay in your lane, Bro" and keep my reporting on the Coronavirus to how it impacts our outdoor opportunities. And while that may be the last thing on your mind in these uncertain times, I have an obligation to keep you informed on these matters.

Now, things could change before Weekly Bargain Bulletin, Edition 2500, comes out on Friday, March 20, 2020, but this is the most current info the PA Fish & Boat Commission put out in their press release on Monday, March 16. It is titled, "PFBC announces consolidated statewide schedule for trout season, begins accelerated stocking operations, adds more convenient license purchase and display options." Additionally, it has a subtitle of "Agency will modify operations as needed amid concerns over COVID-19." The opening sentence of the press release bears repeating verbatim, "Amid concerns regarding the spread of COVID-19, the PA Fish & Boat Commission today announced several changes to the 2020 trout season intended to protect the safety of the public and staff, while preserving the opportunity to enjoy the fun and recreational health benefits of fishing." Based on this press release, much of the info I shared in last week's column (WBB #2499) has changed, so let's take a look at these revisions and their impacts.

First, there will only be a Statewide Mentored Youth Trout Day (Sat., Apr. 11) and a Statewide Opening Day of Trout (Sat., Apr. 18). This does not change the scheduling of these two events for individuals in 49 PA counties (including Lawrence County), but for those 18 counties of Southeastern PA where they were originally scheduled for March 28 (Regional Youth Trout Day) and April 4 (Regional Trout Opener), it delays both events by two weeks. These changes were implemented after receiving guidance from the PA Dept. of Health and the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) to reduce large gatherings of people and avoid bringing outside anglers into those 18 Southeastern PA counties, which are already heavily impacted by COVID-19.

Second, the PFBC 2020 trout stocking program will be conducted on an accelerated schedule and most importantly, volunteers WILL NOT be permitted to assist with stocking activities. This is a significant change from the past, when a corps of volunteers, often the same individuals at most stockings across the county, would help carry bucketloads of trout to help distribute them. The intent is to minimize interactions between PFBC staff members and the general population to ensure public safety. As is clearly stated in their press release, "The change in stocking procedures will not result in any reduction in the approximately 3.2 million trout scheduled to be stocked statewide in 2020 and stocking will occur seven days a week until further notice." Initially, stocking priorities will be given to those regions most severely impacted by COVID-19 that could eventually result in restrictions on travel. Prior to the April 11 Statewide Youth Trout Day, all PA stocked streams, rivers, and lakes will receive their allocations of trout and in some cases, the preseason and in-season stockings will be consolidated into one release.

Finally, to avoid unnecessary travel and social contact amid health concerns, anglers and boaters are reminded they can purchase licenses and registrations online, and for the first time ever will be permitted to produce a digital copy of their license/registration on their phone or digital device as proof of possession, if approached by a Waterways Conservation Officer.

While the PFBC's methods may be different, anglers will still have opportunities to get outdoors and fish, which has proven health benefits.

God Bless, Be Safe, and Great Outdoors! ©WBB 2020

• If you want to make a message station for dry-erase notes, try this cheap and fun DIY trick: Grab a picture frame with a glass insert. Use a photo, pretty piece of patterned paper or a piece of your child's artwork covered by a sheet of tracing paper in the frame. Hang on the wall. You can write on the glass with a dry-erase marker and erase as needed.
