Now Here's A Tip

by JoAnn Derson

- "Stainless steel appliances are very popular, and in the kitchen, they get plenty of chances to get fingerprinted up. My appliance guy recommended using a light-mist, wax-based aerosol dusting spray once or twice a week to keep my stainless steel appliance fronts looking their best." - R.C. in North Carolina
- In the closet, we all want to pare away unused items, but sometimes it seems like you wear clothes that you don't. Turn all the clothes hangers the opposite way (facing out instead of in). When you use an item and it is returned to the closet, replace the hanger normally. In a few months, if an item has not been worn, it will be apparent. If it's not likely to be worn, it should go. ©2021 King Features

• Just as earth has earthquakes, the moon
has – you guessed it – moonquakes. While less common and less intense than the shakes
we know and dread, they're believed to result from tidal stresses con-

• Are you a fan of hot peppers? One you might want to avoid is the Dragon's Breath chili pepper, which could kill you by causing a type of anaphylactic shock,
burning and even clos-

1. Bob Dylan walked out of rehearsals of The Ed Sullivan show because of a dispute over which song?
2. Which two artists cut “Ebony and Ivory”?
3. Canadian rockers Bachman-Turner Overdrive (aka BTO) had one No. 1 hit in the U.S. What was it? What was on the flip side of the single?
4. Which group released “Once in a Lifetime”?

TRIVIA TEST ANSWERS

1. “Talkin’ John Birch Paranoid Blues.” The show’s censors said the song was possibly libelous. In later years, it was realized the song is satire.
2. Paul McCartney and Stevie Wonder, in 1982.
3. “You Ain’t Seen Nothin’ Yet,” in 1974. The b-side was “Free Wheelin’.”
4. Talking Heads, in 1980. The song was used in the 1986 film “Down and Out in Beverly Hills.”

Outdoor Opportunities By COL (Ret.) Grey D. Berrier II

Paddling Down Pine Creek Through the Scenic PA Grand Canyon

How's your spontaneity? Sometimes, the most memorable outdoor experiences occur when you take advantage of an unexpected opportunity which suddenly becomes available. Back in 2009, my wife accompanied me, on our own dime, on a military business trip out to Camp Navajo, west of Flagstaff, Arizona. When we learned we were only an hour away from the Grand Canyon, we immediately decided we needed to get there at some point during the limited free time I had. One evening, as soon as my meetings ended, we headed northwest in our rental car. We arrived on the South Rim about 45-minutes before sunset and we'll always remember the indescribable views and captivating photos from our truly humbling, limited time at the Grand Canyon before dark. We hope to make it back out to Arizona at some point, but we can always say we've visited one of the absolute natural wonders of the world.

Back in April, I received a call from our niece, Sydney. After several years of intense studying and hard work, she finally completed all her course work, hands-on training, and licensing requirements as a dental hygienist and enhanced function dental assistant (EFDA). We are very proud of her and to celebrate this professional milestone, Sydney decided she wanted to go whitewater rafting on Pine Creek through the PA Grand Canyon. She knew her Uncle Grey and cousin, Grey III, would be up for this excursion. Now, my sister Gayle (Sydney's mom) has been close friends with a wonderful couple, Joe & Tracy, for over 25-years out in Ephrata, PA. They are originally from Wellsboro, PA (home of the PA Grand Canyon) and they have a very comfortable vacation home in Wellsboro, which they generously open to friends. Their cottage was our temporary residence, May 21-23, when we visited the PA Grand Canyon.

It was a 4-hour trip from Lawrence County to Tioga County, heading east out across Interstate 80 and then north on PA-287 from Jersey Shore to Wellsboro. We met Gayle & Sydney in time for dinner on Fri., May 21 at the cottage and then we all headed west on US-6 for 10-miles before turning south on a country road paralleling the west bank of Pine Creek, which took us to Colton Point State Park. We had an incredible view of the PA Grand Canyon from the West Rim there and even from our towering vantage point, we could tell the water level in Pine Creek was rather low. None of us had ever paddled Pine Creek before, so Sydney booked a guided raft trip, since the waterway is capable of producing Class II rapids (1 to 3-foot whitecaps) and even Class III rapids (waves up to 4 or 5-feet), which definitely demand respect.

We arrived at Pine Creek Outfitters before 8:15 AM on Sat., May 22, and we were one of the first parties there. Based on the quantity of flatwater kayaks and canoes we saw the outfitters shuttling around and other parties showing up with, we could tell the low water level in Pine Creek that day would be predominantly Class I rapids (moving water with small waves) and possibly a brief Class II stretch or two at most. The outfitters put the kayaks, canoes, and unguided rafts on the water before it was our turn to go. Our guided raft trip consisted of four rafts and two guides. One guide (Stacy) took two men in the lead raft, the second guide (Wade) took a young couple in the trail raft, there were four young men in the third raft, and we occupied the fourth raft. We put in less than a mile above the Big Meadow Access Area and were pretty much left on our own throughout our 8-mile float trip. Gayle took the front left, Grey III manned the front right, Sydney had the back left, and I paddled/steered from the back right on our raft.

We passed numerous fishermen throughout our multi-hour raft trip. Most were deftly casting fly rods while wading out in this highly-regarded trout stream. I had the privilege of getting out of the raft 20-times or so in the less than knee-deep water to pull our raft off of or through the many submerged rocks. Only one stretch of about 100-yards at the Asaph Rapids proved to be Class II water on that particular day. (It would have been much different had the water level been higher and faster.) The views down through the PA Grand Canyon on Pine Creek were phenomenal, but based on the sheer number of paddlers and anglers out on the water, we saw very little wildlife. When we wrapped up our rafting trip at the Tiadaghton Campground, we enjoyed a shore lunch and reflected on a wonderful day with family members in a truly remarkable and inspiring location in Penn's Woods. That evening, we had dinner in Wellsboro and walked around the charming municipality, along with visiting nearby Leonard Harrison State Park, which offers breath-taking views from the East Rim. If you haven't already, you'll also want to visit the PA Grand Canyon at some point in your life! God Bless, Be Safe, and Great Outdoors!

Why Didn't Noah swat those two mosquitos?

Now Here's A Tip

by JoAnn Derson

• Spring is a wonderful time to clean the walls inside your house. It clears away hidden dust and really freshens a room. Clean painted walls by dusting them first with a dry mop, then washing with a rag dampened in water. If you need a little extra oomph – say, in the kitchen or bath – add a couple drops of mild dish soap. ©2021 King Features Synd. Inc.

DEAR PAW'S CORNER:
During Memorial Day week, I wanted to bring your readers' attention to the service and sacrifice of the thousands of dogs who went to war with their soldiers. Many did not come home, because they either died during operations or were left behind. Please take a few minutes this week to remember these four-footed warriors – Jim W., Chattanooga

DEAR JIM: Request received! Thank you for calling attention to the sacrifices of military working dogs. The U.S. armed forces has had a military dog program since World War II. These canine warriors help detect mines and improvised explosive devices (IEDs), provide security on bases and much more. Between 2001 and 2013, over 2,600 "war dogs" were deployed to Afghanistan and Iraq. In that time, at least 92 are known to have died, the majority in combat.

However, in all this time, there was no military-wide tracking system of its injured war dogs. How often were they injured or killed? What were their injuries like? How did they fare after their service? Data that would be helpful in treating other injured war dogs was being lost.

In January, funding was passed for a Military Working Dogs Trauma Registry (for details, go to www.avma.org and search for "working dogs, combat injuries"). Veterinarians will be able to consult the registry to learn more about war dog combat injuries and better ways to treat them. Injured war dogs will have a better chance of survival. Retired dogs will be able to get more effective treatment for their wounds.

This legislation is a huge, active step toward truly honoring the sacrifices of military working dogs and can help even more of them come home. ©2021 King Features

GOOD HOUSEKEEPING

Deli Coleslaw

- 1/4 cup mayonnaise
- 3 tablespoons cider vinegar
- 2 teaspoons sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper
- 2 cups thinly sliced green cabbage
- 1 cup grated carrot

In a large bowl, combine mayonnaise, vinegar, sugar, salt, and pepper. Add cabbage and carrots and toss to coat evenly with mayonnaise mixture. Cover and refrigerate at least 2 hours before serving. Makes 4 half-cup servings.

Our Daily Bread

A Graduation Wish
 Today's Scripture: Psalm 42

Why are you cast down, O my soul? . . . Hope in God; for I shall yet praise Him. Psalm 42:5

The high school commencement speaker was the president of a large corporation. He was chosen for the occasion because of his success. Yet his speech came with a most unusual wish for the graduates.

The speaker told the students sitting before him in their graduation gowns, "If I could have one hope for you as you go out into the world, it would be this: I hope you fail. I hope that you fail at something that is important to you." He went on to say how his own early life had been one failure after another, until he learned to see failure as an effective teacher.

Many of the songs of Israel were born in seasons of failure. Out of desperation came the cry, "As the deer pants for the water brooks, so pants my soul for You, O God. My soul thirsts for God, for the living God" (Ps. 42:1-2).

Sometimes we are not ready to see the wonder of God's wisdom and strength until we are gasping for breath in the exhaustion of our own strength.

A recurring story of the Bible is that mountains of faith rise from the valleys of failure. Before discovering the high ground we are looking for, we may need to see the failure of the dreams we hold in our hearts and trust instead in the love, wisdom, and guidance of our God. By: Mart DeHaan

The lessons we learn from our failures
 Are lessons that help us succeed,
 And if we are wise and we heed them,
 Then failure is just what we need. D. De Haan

Learn from your failures, or you will fail to learn.

• The first person to be charged with driving too fast was Walter Arnold, of the English village Paddock Wood in Kent. On Jan. 28, 1896, he clocked in at four times the speed limit in his Benz – or a whopping 8 mph. A constable chased him down on a bicycle and issued Arnold a ticket.

Strange But True

by Lucie Winborne

- The fear of young people is known as “ephebiphobia.”
- Kim Walker played clique leader Heather Chandler in the movie “Heathers.” Her character was noted for stinging one-liners, one of which – “Did you have a brain tumor for breakfast?” – had a tragic echo. Walker died of a brain tumor 13 years after uttering the line onscreen. ©2021 King Features Syndicate, Inc.

• "After a recent bathroom redecoration, we had a toilet paper holder left over. I mounted it on the wall in my shop, and I use it to dispense twine. It's actually working well and is the per-

Life in small town USA:

Some folks from Minnesota were touring Wisconsin when they stopped for lunch at a small town where the citizens were putting on a parade. One native son came up to them and greeted them warmly.
"Friends," he said "we're reall glad you came along. Everyone in town is in this parade and there is no one left to watch it."

Now Here's A Tip

by JoAnn Derson

- Periodically take down curtains and run them through the clothes dryer to dust. If they are not delicate, you can add a couple wool dryer balls to help loosen the dust. Rehang as soon as they are finished to avoid unsightly wrinkles.
- Need an easy substitute for buttermilk? Squeeze lemon juice into milk, and let it sit for 10-15 minutes before using.

GOOD HOUSEKEEPING

Steak Sandwich with Grilled Onions

1/4 cup soy sauce
1/4 cup balsamic vinegar
1 tablespoon brown sugar
1 teaspoon fresh thyme leaves
1/4 teaspoon ground pepper
1 (1 1/4-pound) beef flank steak
1 medium (8 oz.) red onion, cut into 4 thick slices 8 slices sourdough bread, toasted on grill if you like 2 medium ripe tomatoes, sliced
1 bunch arugula, tough stems discarded

In large self-sealing plastic bag, mix soy sauce, vinegar, sugar, thyme and pepper. Add steak to marinade, turning to coat. Seal bag, pressing out excess air. Place bag on plate; let stand 15 minutes at room temperature or 1 hour in refrigerator, turning over several times. Meanwhile, for easier handling, insert 1 long metal skewer horizontally through onion slices; set aside. Prepare charcoal fire or preheat gas grill for covered direct grilling over medium heat. Remove steak from marinade; pour marinade into 1-quart saucepan. Heat marinade over high heat to boiling; boil 2 minutes. Place steak and onion slices on hot grill rack. Cover grill and cook steak and onion 12 to 15 minutes or until onions are browned and tender and meat is medium-rare, brushing both with marinade occasionally and turning both over once. Transfer steak to cutting board; separate onion into rings. Thinly slice steak diagonally across the grain. Arrange onion rings and steak on 4 slices of bread; spoon any meat juices from board over onion and steak. Top with tomatoes, arugula and remaining 4 slices of bread. Serves 4. Begonia Diadema

This showy perennial is a favorite for shady porches and patios, as it likes growing in pots and hanging baskets, and it needs only indirect light. Water and fertilize carefully, and apply them directly to the soil; the leaves and stems may appear discolored if splashed upon, and the plant will decline overall if the soil is soggy or too much fertilizer is applied.
