Outdoor Opportunities By COL (Ret.) Grey D. Berrier II

Be Proactive: Include Hunters Sharing the Harvest in Your 2021-22 Deer Hunting Plans!

Looking back, I can think of numerous times when I've lent a "helping hand" while out deer hunting. Cooperation afield just seems to be part of most hunters' DNA. Little things come to mind in no particular order, like: (1) sharing my knife with another successful deer hunter who forgot theirs, (2) helping numerous other hunters drag their deer out of the woods, (3) pushing another stuck hunter's car out of a PA state game lands parking lot after 8-inches of snow came down between when they parked before daylight and when they came back in the late afternoon, and (4) field-dressing a deer for a young man who downed his first deer and wasn't sure how to go about the necessary task of eviscerating it. The interesting thing is, I'm not the exception with the things I've done over the years and most other deer hunters can probably think of a time or two when they've spontaneously pitched in when they've come across a situation afield, where helping out was the right thing to do for someone else.

While the examples I shared were spur-of-the-moment, I want to tell you about an opportunity to really help others during the upcoming PA 2021-22 deer hunting seasons and this one you can plan for well in-advance, since we're still ten weeks out from our PA statewide archery deer season opener on Oct. 2, 2021. I'm talking about Hunters Sharing the Harvest (HSH), Pennsylvania's venison donation program, which helps feed hungry people all across the Commonwealth. Started back in 1991, HSH is the preeminent venison donation program in the entire United States and has provided nearly 2-million pounds of fresh ground venison to help feed those in need over its 30-year existence. The average-sized deer yields 50 lbs. of venison and provides 200 much-needed meals. Protein sources tend to be one of the greatest expenses, least donated, and hardest things to acquire for food banks, food pantries, soup kitchens, and other organizations providing free meals to those in need. Donated venison fills a verifiable shortage at a time when almost 2-million Pennsylvanians (roughly 16% of our state population) is food insecure and sadly over 30% of those in need, close to 631,000, are children. Generous PA deer hunters helped HSH set an all-time PA state record in 2020 with a total of 187,528 lbs. of venison donated to help feed those in need. This was a significant 17% increase over the 2019 total of 160,000+ lbs. and the 2020 donation total translates into over 750,000 nutritious meals. Talk about doing a lot of good while doing what you love to do! That's why I'm imploring you to purchase an additional antlerless tag or two this year and make plans to fill those tags in order to help feed someone who otherwise might go hungry.

How can you get involved? HSH has an informative full-page ad on Page 60 of the 2021-22 PA Hunting & Trapping Digest. Highlighted in the four photos accompanying the ad is John Plowman, the founder of HSH and the dynamic force behind its ongoing success and growth over the past 30-years as HSH's executive director. John is pictured with three nice bucks he's harvested over the years and also with one of HSH's participating meat processors. In March 2021, the mantle of leadership passed to Randy Ferguson, the new HSH executive director, who resides in neighboring Mercer County in the Greenville area. Randy is off to a strong start in his new position and has already recruited me and fellow veteran, Nicholas Lutes, as Area Coordinators for Lawrence County. (Previously, there was no one and now there are two of us available.) HSH has an awesome website: sharedeer.org, which should answer any questions you might have about participating, and both Nick's and my contact information (cell phone # for calls or text/email address) are readily available there. If your rod & gun club, conservation club, or other organization (church, fraternal, etc.) has hunters who would like additional info on HSH, feel free to contact me and I'll be happy to come speak and answer questions at an upcoming meeting.

Over 100 licensed and inspected PA meat processors participate in HSH's statewide network. For those of us in Lawrence County, the two closest are Doug Pepper's Deer Processing and Smokehouse in Ellwood City, just inside Beaver County (a regular WBB Advertiser!), and Minor Acres Packing Co. in Jackson Center (possibly closer to some in northern Lawrence County). It costs nothing to donate all or a portion of your deer at a participating HSH meat processor (several years ago there was minimal co-pay). Tax deductible monetary donations are always welcome to help cover butcher expenses, so even if you don't hunt, you can still "give a buck to the pot" to help this great cause. Hunter Sharing the Harvest = deer hunting + helping others. That's a winning combination! God Bless, Be Safe, and Great Outdoors! ©WBB 2021

DEAR PAW'S CORNER: I saw a warning circulating on social media that said many household disinfecting cleaners are toxic to cats. Is this true? I've been spending extra time cleaning my apartment with germ-killing cleaners, and I'm worried that I've poisoned my two cats. - Beth in Providence, Rhode Island

DEAR BETH: It's true, to an extent. Household cleaners containing phenol, like Lysol and Pine-sol, are widely used to disinfect surfaces that would not respond well to bleach, like wood floors and furniture. Phenol can irritate the nasal passages and cause breathing problems in pets. If your cats are not wheezing or showing other unusual behaviors, they're probably fine, but you can always call their veterinarian to make sure.

The University of Wisconsin-Madison School of Veterinary Medicine last year wrote an informative post on how to safely use phenol-containing cleaning products as well as alternative products.

It's a good idea to put your cats into a different room before using any kind of cleaning product. Spray cleaners can linger in the air for a few minutes, and heavily scented cleaners, even when diluted in water, can irritate pets until the scent clears. Keep them out of the room for an hour after using any disinfectant product.

Even in this time of heightened anxiety about sanitizing our homes against the coronavirus that causes COVID-19, the best cleaning protocol is the one your parents and grandparents used. Dust, sweep and vacuum, and then pick up or wash away organic materials (dirt, food, messes) using unscented dish soap and warm water. Spot-clean furniture with a mild soap-and-water mixture. In medieval Andona, the day before the summer solstice marks the beginning of Audrianna's harrowing journey. As the Daemon clans fight for power, she finds herself trapped as a pivotal piece in a deadly game. This decades-long challenge between brothers stretches across the boundary between life and death, and pulls Audrianna to the very center of the conflict. Cast into a world she does not fully understand, she struggles to return to the one person who matters. Amidst Daemon deities with unknown goals, Audrianna shoulders the burden of a people who call her cursed. Born to make an impossible choice, will she be able to find hope and end the suffering of all Andona?

A MONEY MATTER! Take out an American one-dollar bill and see if you can count how many times the numeral "1" and the word
"one" appear on both sides of it. (The numeral "1" does not count when it appears in a date or a serial number.)

The numeral "1" and the word "one" each appear eight times.

BUSY BEE WORD HIVE! Each word, as you go down the hive, contains the same letters as the word above it plus a new letter. We've given you all of the B's. Here are some hints from the top down:

- 1) Second letter of alphabet (given).
- 2) To exist.
- 3) A place to sleep.
- 4) Ran, as color.
- 5) Part of an ice skate.
- 6) Removed water from boat.
- 7) Having two feet.

by Charles Barry Townsend

UP THE LADDER!

LADDER puzzles test your ability to look ahead. You are given a word that must be changed into another word in a series of moves. During each move you must change one letter in the previous word so as to form a new word. In our example we changed FISH into MEAT in four moves. See if you can change the following five
words in four moves:

1. COIN to BILL.
2. STAR to FEET.
3. BELL to SIFT.
4. CALL to MUTE.
5. RAFT to WING.

Answers:
1. Coin, coin, coil, boll, bill.
2. Star, seat, feat, feet.
3. Bell, sell, sill, sift.
4. Call, mall, male, mate.
5. Raft, rang, ring, wing.

Our Daily Bread

If I Knew Then . . .

In his great mercy [God] has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. 1 Peter 1:3

On the way to work, I listened to the song "Dear Younger Me," which asks: If you could go back, knowing what you know now, what would you tell your younger self? As I listened, I thought about the bits of wisdom I might give my younger, less-wise self. Most of us have thought about how we might do things differently—if only we could do it all over again.

But the song illustrates that even though we have regrets from our past, all our experiences have shaped who we are. We can't change the consequences of our choices or sin. Praise God we don't have to carry the mistakes around with us. Because of what Jesus has done! "In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead"! (1 Peter 1:3).

If we turn to Him in faith and sorrow for our sins, He will forgive us. On that day we're made brand new and begin the process of being spiritually transformed (2 Cor. 5:17). It doesn't matter what we've done (or haven't done), we are forgiven because of what He's done. We can move forward, making the most of today and anticipating a future with Him. In Christ, we're free! By: Alyson Kieda

Reflect & Pray

Dear Lord, I'm so thankful that through You we can be free of the burdens of the past—the mistakes, the pain, the sins—that hang so heavy. We don't need to carry around regret or shame. We can leave them with You.

For further study, read Live Free.

Leave your heavy burdens with God.

Strange But True

by Lucie Winborne

• Gaius Julius Caesar arrived in the world on July 13, 100 B.C., but contrary to popular belief, it's unlikely that the future Roman emperor was born by caesarean section. Although the procedure existed at the time, it was usually fatal to the mother and therefore only performed when a pregnant woman was dead or dying, in an effort to save the child. Caesar's mother, Aurelia, lived until 54 B.C. — nearly half a century after her son's birth. ©2021 King Features Synd., Inc.

Family Fresh Key Lime Pie

This key lime pie recipe takes center stage at our dessert table. It has all the "key" ingredients for togetherness, too, making it a winner all the way around. There's something for everyone to do. Yes, there is mixing and stirring, but also letting out the wiggles when pounding graham crackers and squeezing lots of limes. And for the steady hand, there's separating egg yolks from whites. When it's time for the grand finale, someone else gets to whip the luscious cream and spoon the tempting dollops on each piece. Make that my job. Sound like fun? You bet! Here's how to get started.

Here's what you'll need:

11 cinnamon honey or regular graham crackers crumbled to a pie-crust consistency
1/2 cup melted unsalted butter
1 cup fresh-squeezed lime juice (use Key limes, if available) from about 1 pound of limes
2 14-ounce cans sweetened condensed milk
4 large egg yolks

Topping for the pie:
Whipped cream
1 teaspoon grated lime zest
Fresh mango slices (optional)

6 ears corn, husks and silk removed
4 slices bacon, cut into 1/2" pieces
1 medium red onion, chopped
1 jalapeno chile, seeded and finely chopped
1 clove garlic, finely chopped
2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon ground black pepper
1 pound (6 medium) red potatoes, cut into 1/2" pieces
2 cans (14 1/2 ounces each) chicken broth
2 cups half-and-half or light cream
2 small (8 ounces) ripe tomatoes, peeled, seeded and chopped
Thinly sliced basil leaves

• Cut kernels from corncobs (about 3 cups), reserving 3 corncobs; discard remaining corncobs. In 5-quart Dutch oven, cook bacon over medium heat until browned. With slotted spoon, transfer bacon to paper towels to drain; crumble. To bacon drippings in Dutch oven, add onion and jalapeno, and cook, stirring, until onion is tender, about 5 minutes. Add garlic; cook 1 minute longer. Stir in flour, salt and pepper; cook, stirring, 1 minute. Stir in potatoes, reserved corncobs, broth and half-and-half; heat to boiling over high heat. Reduce heat; cover and simmer until potatoes are tender, 10 to 15 minutes. Discard corncobs; stir in reserved corn kernels and heat through. Transfer chowder to warm tureen. Stir in tomatoes and sprinkle with bacon and basil. Makes about 9 1/2 cups or 8 first-course servings. (c)2021 Hearst Communications, Inc. All rights reserved

2 packages (3 oz. each) cream cheese, softened
1 1/2 cups milk
1 pkg. vanilla-flavor instant pudding (4 servings)
1 can (6 oz.) frozen limeade concentrate, thawed
1 container (8 oz.) frozen whipped topping, thawed
1 (6 oz.) ready-to-use graham-cracker piecrust

• In large bowl, with mixer at medium speed, beat cream cheese until smooth. Gradually beat in 1/2 cup milk. Reduce speed to low; add pudding mix, undiluted limeade concentrate and remaining 1 cup milk. Beat just until blended. Fold in 2 cups whipped topping; spoon into piecrust. Refrigerate pie until firm enough to slice, at least 3 hours. To serve, spoon remaining whipped topping into decorating bag with large star tube; use to pipe border around pie. Garnish with lime slices if you like. Serves 10. (c)2021 Hearst Communications, Inc. All rights reserved

by JoAnn Derson

• Chef's secret: If you sprinkle salt from 12-14 inches above the food you're seasoning, it's called "raining," and it helps the salt crystals to distribute evenly across the food's surface. Plus it will make you look cool.

• "If your pup has an upset stomach, you can try giving him kefir. It's packed with probiotics and is especially good if Fido is on antibiotics or has a yeast problem. Not too much. Just a tablespoon as a treat once a day." – B.T. in TX

• "I really abhor bar soap, but my husband prefers it. After cleaning the soap dish, I smear it with petroleum jelly. I do the underside too. There's a little lip that will keep the soap from sliding off, but the petroleum jelly keeps the inevitable sludge from sticking to the soap dish, making my cleaning routine much easier!" – A.D. in Idaho
