• To make a nice ice pack, enclose several ice cubes in a plastic, sealable baggie, then wrap in a bandana. You can tie the ends together to keep the cover from slipping. When you want to refreeze, put the baggie in the freezer, and hang the bandana to dry. It will dry very quickly and can be reused soon.

Our Daily Bread

Courage And Courtesy

Read: Daniel 1:8-21

Please test your servants for ten days, and let them give us vegetables to eat and water to drink.

Daniel 1:12

I have always admired the boldness, courage, and conviction of Daniel. Recently I was struck by the way he stood for his principles in a pagan culture. The Bible tells us that Daniel "purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself" with food and drink that God said was forbidden for Jews, so he asked his captors for another menu (Dan. 1:8). Instead of crossing his arms and refusing to eat, Daniel asked permission to take a different nutritional approach. When the official refused, Daniel pursued his goal with a polite request to someone else: "Please test your servants for ten days" (v.12).

We can learn from this young man, who took a bold stand for God by asking permission instead of making demands. There is no trace of arrogance in his behavior.

Gentleness and respect are to characterize our testimony to an unbelieving world. We are not to compromise our commitment to Christ, but we are to be ready to answer anyone who asks about our hope (1 Pet. 3:15-16). Our witness for Christ, therefore, is to be lived and spoken boldly, yet gently and respectfully.

When it's time to take a stand, let's follow Daniel's powerful example of courage combined with courtesy.

Dare to be a Daniel, Dare to stand alone!
Dare to have a purpose firm!
Dare to make it known! —Bliss

It's easy to stand with the crowd;
it takes courage to stand alone.

DEAR PAW'S CORNER:
 I am wondering how I can get an emotional support animal. I noticed a woman in the local pharmacy today whose dog wore a harness with "ESA" printed on it. Is there an organization that supplies these animals to people who need them? – Curious in Daytona Beach

DEAR CURIOUS: You'll find many websites offering ESA certifications or advice on getting an ESA prescription from your doctor. But there is no single organization for ESAs, and there is not one group I know of that supplies them on request (certainly, none that I would recommend).

At this time, the way to "get" an emotional support animal is to adopt or purchase a pet. You are solely responsible for the care and training of this animal – dog, cat, rabbit or bird. It's part of your family. From there, you can designate your pet as an ESA by doing the following:

Ask your doctor or mental health professional for a letter stating that the presence of your pet is needed for your emotional health.

That's it. That's all that is needed to designate a pet as an ESA.

Now, keep in mind that an emotional support animal does not qualify for the same considerations as a service animal. While many stores allow ESAs on the premises (leashed and well-behaved), other businesses do not. Airlines will not accommodate them, for example.

The advantage of an ESA designation/prescription is in housing. Properties must waive pet restrictions and fees for owners of emotional support animals, under the Fair Housing Act.

The American Kennel Club has a more detailed article explaining the difference between ESAs and service animals here: www.akc.org/expert-advice/news/everything-about-emotional-support-animals.

Do you have an emotional support animal? Tell us about your experience at ask@pawscorner.com.

Quick and Easy Chicken Noodle Soup

1 Tbsp. butter
1/2 cup chopped onion
1/2 cup chopped celery
4 (14.5 oz.) cans chicken broth
1 (14.5 oz.) can vegetable broth
1/2 lb. chopped cooked chicken breast
1 1/2 cups egg noodles
1 cup sliced carrots
1/2 tsp. dried basil
1/2 tsp. dried oregano
salt and pepper to taste

• Melt butter in a large pot over medium heat. Add onion and celery and cook until just tender, about 5 minutes. Add chicken broth, vegetable broth, chicken, egg noodles, carrots, basil, oregano, salt, and pepper. Stir to combine and bring to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer for 20 minutes.

Garlic Bread Spread

1/2 cup butter, softened
1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese
2 cloves garlic, minced
1/4 tsp. dried marjoram
1/4 tsp. dried basil
1/4 tsp. fines herbs
1/4 tsp. dried oregano
1/4 tsp. dried parsley
black pepper to taste
1 loaf unsliced Italian bread

Preheat oven to 350°. Put all ingredients but bread together in a bowl, mix well. Slice Italian bread loaf in half lengthwise; spread each half generously with garlic butter mixture. Transfer onto baking sheet. Bake on top rack of oven until butter mixture bubbles, 10-15 minutes. Turn on oven's broiler, broil 1-2 min. until bread is desired shade of brown.

Tell 'em you saw it in the Weekly Bargain Bulletin

Outdoor Opportunities By COL (Ret.) Grey D. Berrier II

They Are Our PA State Parks –
So Visit Early and Visit Often!

Do you realize you are an abundant land owner? Here in PA, we are all truly blessed. 16.3% of the Commonwealth's land area is public land (that's 1/6 of the entire state)! As a PA citizen, those lands are your lands, just waiting to be explored, enjoyed, respected, and cherished. Many folks do not realize PA has one of the largest state park systems in the entire nation, currently comprised of 124 state parks totaling over 300,000 acres. Back on Sep. 27, 2022, then-Governor Tom Wolf announced the addition of PA's three newest parks, which are currently in the planning phase in Chester, Wyoming, and York Counties. Our enviable state park system owes a lot of its success to a true visionary, a name you might recognize, Maurice K. Goddard. (Yes, the namesake of the beautiful state park in neighboring Mercer County, which encompasses Lake Wilhelm.) Maurice Goddard (1912-1995) was a WWII veteran, a Penn State Professor, and the driving force behind the creation of 45 PA state parks, while he served for 24-years under six governors as a cabinet officer, first as the Secretary of the PA Dept. of Forests and Waters (1955-70) and then as the Secretary of the renamed PA Dept. of Environmental Resources (1970-79).

It was Maurice Goddard's vision to establish a PA state park within 25-miles of every citizen everywhere in the entire Commonwealth. That is very close to existing under today's PA Dept. of Conservation and Natural Resources (DCNR). It was back in July 1995 when the former PA Dept of Environmental Resources split into two agencies: DCNR (which manages our state parks and state forests) and the Dept. of Environmental Protection (DEP). If you think about the Weekly Bargain Bulletin's distribution area, his PA state park accessibility vision pretty much holds true. Lawrence County has McConnells Mill State Park, while Beaver County has Raccoon Creek, Butler County has Moraine, and Mercer has Goddard. All four state parks are very unique and definitely worth visiting. When hearing about the vision to have a state park within 25-miles of every PA resident, many people incorrectly assume Pittsburgh and Allegheny County are left out of this plan. They forget the land at the tip of the Triangle, where the Allegheny and Monongahela Rivers merge to form the mighty Ohio River, the location of the prominent fountain, is Point State Park and visited by thousands of people every day.

I would encourage every reader to visit our PA state parks on a regular basis in 2023! They are not just for picnicking in warmer weather, but year-round retreats, waiting to be experienced Winter, Spring, Summer, and Fall. And don't just visit the four PA state parks closest to home that I mentioned earlier. Broaden your horizons and visit one or more new PA state parks elsewhere in the Commonwealth where you've never set foot before. You'll be pleasantly surprised and enjoy seeing new places/things for the first time. Wanting to be a practitioner of what I'm preaching, my wife and I headed up to Goddard State Park back on New Year's Day, Jan. 1, 2023 for their scheduled First Day Hike. (First Day Hikes are growing in popularity at state and national parks all across the country to encourage people to get out.)

Our guide was retired DCNR Outdoor Educator, Linda Armstrong, who previously worked at Yellow Creek and Pymatuning State Parks. She had 19 eager participants for the 90-minute interpreted walk, including Goddard State Park Manager, Mark Scarpitti, along with his wife and children. Linda covered a broad array of outdoor topics focused on park habitat management for wildlife, stressing that mowed grass fields provide little, if any, benefit for wildlife, while overgrown fields, brushy areas, and forests help a wide assortment of species. While we walked the trails mowed through the brush, Linda pointed out tracks, trails, scat (yes, wild animal poop), birds' nests, blue bird boxes, numerous interesting facts about an assortment of plants (such as goldenrod, Norway spruce, multiflora rose, white pine, red pine, and scotch pine), rock walls which are evidence of former agricultural fields/pastures now overgrown, and the importance of small streams with their abundance of aquatic insects. Her facts, stories, and insight kept the attention of participants of all ages on a day when the temperature might have been a distraction. Our PA state parks have outdoor educators who offer a wide variety of outdoor-oriented walks, talks, and activities year-round. You can learn about these many offerings from DCNR's website: www.dcnr.pa.gov If you feel confined, get outdoors and explore/enjoy our PA state parks, because it's our public land!

Follow-Up: After writing my recent three-part series here, I was blessed to harvest an antlerless deer in Armstrong County with my flintlock on the last day, Jan. 16! God Bless, Be Safe, and Great Outdoors!

Wake Up to a Baked Oatmeal Breakfast

Why did it take me so long to put "Baked Oatmeal" on our family's wake-up menu? I was completely enthralled with the tasty porridge-based dish at a bed and breakfast in Chicago a few years back. Prepared to Goldilocks' "just right" standard, I recall how the serving's perfect, cinnamon, smooth middle complemented the crispy edges. Doused with warm milk and topped with my choice of dried apricots, it was satisfying – and kept me going through a vigorous morning of sightseeing.

I left the memory on the back burner – until now. Here's a basic, fail-proof recipe you and your kids can tinker with seasonally. That means a mix and match of add-ins and add-ons to satisfy one's own tastes. Ground flax? Toss it in. Chia seeds? Sprinkle them on top. Blueberries in season? Top off the bowl with luscious freshness, color and vitamins.

BAKED OATMEAL

Serves 6

- 2 cups old-fashioned rolled oats
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 2 teaspoons cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 large egg, beaten
- 1 1/2 cups milk
- 1/4 cup unsalted butter, melted
- 1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract
- 1/4 cup raisins
- 1/2 cup loosely chopped walnuts

– Optional serving toppings: dried cranberries, apricots or cherries, coconut, berries, diced fresh fruit such as apples, bananas and peaches

To prepare oven and pan: Preheat oven to 350 F. Generously butter the inside of an 8-inch square baking dish or coat with cooking spray.

To make oatmeal: In a large bowl, mix together the oats, brown sugar, baking powder, cinnamon and salt.

In another bowl, whisk together the beaten egg, milk, butter and vanilla. Add liquid mixture to oat mixture and stir well. Stir in raisins and walnuts.

To bake oatmeal: Pour mixture into baking dish. Bake for 35 minutes, or until the top is golden and the oat mixture has set. Serve warm.

Extra idea:

Heat leftover portions in the microwave for additional easy breakfasts.

Q: I found an old serving tray in a resale shop that caught my eye. It is handpainted with flowers and leaves. There is a lot of gold detail. It looks old. The saleswoman said it was toleware. What is that?

A: Toleware is painted tinware, usually with a black varnished background and designs painted on by hand or stenciled. It is correct to call any painted tin-plated sheet metal "painted tin." Tin was painted to protect it from rust as well as to make it attractive. Toleware made before the 19th century was often called japanned ware. The designs were sometimes inspired by Japanese lacquer ware. Toleware prices depend on the design and whether there is rust or paint loss. It is very popular today and a tray can sell for $200 or more. ©2023 King Features
