It's Finally Here, the Time of Year, When We Can Start Hunting White-Tailed Deer!

The anticipation has been building. It started back on June 23, 2025 when new PA 2025-26 hunting licenses went on sale and Round 1 of antlerless deer licenses became available to PA residents. Other key events continued the momentum with Round 1 opening for nonresidents on July 14, followed by Rounds 2 (July 28), 3 (Aug. 11), and 4 (Aug. 25) for all license buyers (PA residents and nonresidents). Across all four rounds of antlerless license sales (AKA doe licenses), there were 1,312,000 tags available for sale throughout the 22 Wildlife Management Units (WMUs) the Commonwealth is geographically divided up into. That represents a 10.6% increase in the total antlerless tag number from the 2024-25 hunting season. Statistically, only 1 in 4 antlerless tags is filled, so the PGC projection is for 328,000 does to be harvested.

WMUs are multi-county chunks of the Commonwealth with clearly identifiable roads or waterways as boundaries. In the three WMUs with the highest human populations, WMU 2B in Western PA (most of Allegheny County and portions of surrounding suburban counties) and WMUs 5C & 5D (think Philadelphia and the Southeast corner of PA), archery season opened back on September 20. However, in the vast majority of our great state, the other 19 WMUs, statewide archery season for antlered and antlerless deer opens Sat., Oct. 4, 2025 and that is why you might have noticed archers practicing with their bows and crossbows out in their yards. According to the Archery Trade Association (ATA), PA has the most archery hunters of all 50 states with 334,000 archers (approximately 41% of all PA hunters).

There are numerous significant changes for our 2025-26 deer hunting seasons, so let's take a look at them to make sure you or your friends/loved ones who deer hunt are up to date on the latest info. In talking with other hunters, I'm not sure everyone knows. Keep in mind, some of these changes were made after the 2025-26 PA Hunting & Trapping Digest was published back in June, so they are not "in the book". You'll want to consult the PA Game Commission's website: www.pa.gov/pgc for the most current and accurate info. First, Sunday hunting was signed into law by Governor Shapiro on July 9, 2025 and House Bill 1431 / Act 36 of 2025 gives the PGC authority to set hunting seasons that include Sundays.

Fri., Nov 21. That's seven days a week and includes the following Sundays: Oct. 5, 12, 19, & 26, as well as Nov. 2, 9, 16. That's seven additional days to archery hunt for deer, so archers are basically adding an entire week to their season. However, there are some exceptions you need to be aware of. First, if you hunt private land, you need to ask the landowner if they permit Sunday hunting, don't assume. Second, while PA State Forests (2.5 million acres) will be open to Sunday hunting, our PA State Parks will NOT be open for Sunday hunting, except for the three Sundays approved prior to Act 36 of 2025 being signed by Governor Shapiro, which are Nov. 16, 23, & 30. (Note: only Nov. 16 coincides with statewide archery season, so that will be the only Sunday our PA State Parks will be accessible for Sunday archery hunting.) On a side note, migratory game bird seasons are regulated by the federal government, so you will NOT be able to hunt doves, ducks, geese, and other migratory game birds on Sundays. The U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service sets how many days every state can hunt each species of migratory game birds, so to add Sunday hunting the PGC would have to drop other days.

Our statewide muzzleloader antlerless deer season runs Oct. 18-25, so hunters using a flintlock rifle, percussion cap, or inline muzzleloader will gain Sunday, Oct. 19 to hunt. Regular statewide firearms deer hunters already had Sun., Nov. 30, as part of their Nov. 29 – Dec. 13 two week season, but firearm hunters will also gain Sun., Dec. 7. PA State Parks will be accessible for Sunday hunting on Nov. 30, but NOT Dec. 7. Please observe the fundamental fact that all PA hunting seasons that closed on a Saturday in the PA 2025-26 Hunting & Trapping Digest, still close on a Saturday. That means our regular firearm deer season closes on Sat., Dec. 13, and does NOT include Sunday, Dec. 14. I already foresee one or more hunters making the mistake and harvesting a deer on that Closed Sunday. At this point, Sunday hunting has not been extended to late archery, late flintlock, or the extended DMAP antlerless firearm season in late Dec. and Jan 2026, but that could change. PA deer hunters have more opportunities to harvest deer than ever before. That's some exciting news!

God Bless, Be Safe, and Great Outdoors!

©Weekly Bargain Bulletin 2025

The PGC has already taken the initiative to open 13 Sundays for hunting this Fall. The three Sundays in September (14, 21, & 28) have already passed, but once our statewide archery season opens on Sat. Oct. 4, it will remain continuously open until

Opal Glass

Crystal, amethyst, amber, emerald, ruby: Decorative glass is often made to capture the vivid color and intense sparkle of gemstones. It isn't limited to transparent stones, either. A type of opaque matte glass called opal glass or opaline became popular in Europe in the mid-19th century.

Inspired by Venetian lattimo (milk glass) made since the 1500s and English Bristol glass of the 1700s, opal glass is a semi-opaque glass, usually white or a light color, with a slight iridescent sheen. Decorators found that it made a beautiful background for gilt or enamel designs, like this blue opaline vase that sold at Alderfer Auction for $307.

The auction described the vase as "French style," and opaline was at its most popular in France in the mid-to late-1800s. About the same time, the opal gemstone experienced a resurgence in popularity. Believed to have magic powers and healing properties in ancient and medieval times, it was considered unlucky in the 1800s.

One of the superstitions surrounding it is that, as the October birthstone, it brought bad luck to any wearer born in any other month. However, Queen Victoria, who was born in May, defied superstitions with her love of opals. She wore opal jewelry, gave it as gifts and promoted the newly established Australian opal mines. By the art nouveau period of the late 1800s, opals were a favorite stone for jewelry. Perhaps this influenced the popularity of opal glass.

Fun Fact

People may wonder, "What kind of black bird am I looking at?" The habitat you are observing provides important clues. If you see a small black bird in a cattail marsh, it's likely a red-winged blackbird. If you spot a larger, all-black bird in an urban park, it's probably an American crow or European starling.

Desert Places

The Lord . . . has watched over your journey through this vast wilderness. Deuteronomy 2:7
READ Deuteronomy 2:1-7

When I was a young believer, I thought "mountaintop" experiences were where I would meet Jesus. But those highs rarely lasted or led to growth. Author Lina AbuJamra says it's in the desert places where we meet God and grow. In her Bible study Through the Desert, she writes, "God's aim is to use the desert places in our lives to make us stronger." She continues, "God's goodness is meant to be received in the midst of your pain, not proven by the absence of pain."

It's in the hard places of sorrow, loss, and pain that God helps us to grow in our faith and become closer to Him. As Lina learned, "The desert is not an oversight in God's plan but an integral part of [our] growth process."

God led many Old Testament patriarchs to the desert. Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob all had wilderness experiences. It was in the desert that God prepared Moses' heart and called him to lead His people out of slavery (Exodus 3:1-2, 9-10). And it was in the desert that God "watched over [the Israelites'] journey" for forty years with His help and guidance (Deuteronomy 2:7).

God was with Moses and the Israelites each step of their way through the desert, and He's with you and me in ours. In the desert, we learn to rely on God. There He meets us—and there we grow.
By Alyson Kieda

REFLECT and PRAY

When has God met you in a desert place? What happened as a result?

Dear God, thank You for being with me in the difficult desert experiences of my life. You're faithful and compassionate.

DEAR PAW'S CORNER: Whenever I'm having a conversation with my friends or talking to my mom, our cat "Jasper" stands right in the middle of our group and meows. If we stop talking, he stops meowing. What's going on? Is my cat trying to talk? - Victoria L., Canton, Massachusetts

DEAR VICTORIA: Sort of! Although it's probably because Jasper sees a bunch of humans gathered together, all of whom have thumbs and can therefore open a bag of treats for him. Cats vocalize with humans more than they do with other cats. Much more. Researchers (and owners) have figured out that they meow at us a lot because it prompts us to give them food, treats and snuggles - even though we have a harder time understanding cats' meows than other animal noises. They're very perceptive, these housecats, with not much to distract them from observing us all the time (especially since so many of us work from home these days).

They've figured out our daily schedule better than we have. I have a cat who hops on my lap and starts head-butting my smartphone exactly at bed-time. He gets his little snack, and I get eight proper hours of sleep. And if I get home late? Oh, the silent treatment I receive. It's the complete opposite of meowing, and just as manipulative.

Like you, I'd like to think that Jasper is just trying to get in on the excited conversation going on all around him. That could be the case. It could also be Jasper's realization that big gatherings of humans usually involve food ... and if he stays underfoot, some of that deliciousness will come his way.

The Garden Bug

All parts of the dandelion, including its flowers, roots and stems, are edible. Dandelion tea is full of nutrients such as vitamins A, C and K, folate, calcium and potassium. It is known to be beneficial for digestion and for detoxing
the liver and bile systems, which can help clear acne and other skin problems. It also contains beta-carotene, which protects against cell damage, and polyphenols, which are anti-inflammatory, which help the heart. - Brenda Weaver

Strange But True

by Lucie Winborne

• In 2010, a man became stranded for days near Wollaston Lake, Saskatchewan. With no way to call for help, he cut down four wooden power poles with an ax, causing an outage to the nearby community, and SaskPower sent a helicopter crew to investigate. They found the man and escorted him back to safety.

Each numbered row contains two clues and two 6-letter answers. The two answers differ from each other by only one letter, which has already been inserted. For example, if you change the A from MASTER for an I, you get MISTER. Do not change the order of the letters. Answers page 21. ©2025 King Features Synd., Inc.

Now Here's A Tip

by JoAnn Derson

• “Wear oven mitts to protect your hands when clipping roses or other thorny plants.” – O.L. in Louisiana
• Now is the time to have your heating systems checked over. Before you start a fire in your fireplace, make sure you have your fireplace checked for cracks in the mortar joints. Very small cracks can start a fire in your home, as the flames can be sucked through the hole. While you are at it, have any creosote buildup cleaned out. Be safe AND warm this season! ©2025 King Features Synd., Inc.

• Got dogs? Here's a great recipe to get the smell of skunk out: Mix 1 quart hydrogen peroxide (3%), 1/4 cup baking soda and 1 teaspoon liquid soap. Mix well and bathe pet in this solution, rubbing it into coat and keeping it away from your dog's eyes. Can not be mixed ahead, so keep the ingredients on hand if you have curious pups and skunks in the area.

Bake Bread Pudding From Yesterday's Cinnamon Rolls

We often enjoy cinnamon rolls for morning coffee when relatives come for a visit during this time of year. We either pick them up at a bakery or bake this easy recipe with anyone who wants to get their hands in the dough! The next day, the "leftovers" can be transformed into a yummy "Apple Pecan Bread Pudding." Try it out for yourself:

EASY FAMILY CINNAMON ROLLS

- 1 package of yeast roll mix, or a batch of yeast bread dough
- 1/4 cup butter or margarine
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 1/4 cup cinnamon
- Raisins and nuts, if desired

For the glaze:

- 1 cup powdered sugar
- 2 tablespoons milk

Prepare and roll the bread dough into a 10-by-12-inch rectangle. Spread the dough with butter or margarine, and sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon. Add raisins and nuts, if desired.

Roll the dough up along the long side. Slice the dough into 1-inch rounds using a bread knife. Or try dental floss to cut the dough by placing it under the large roll of dough. Lift the floss and quickly crisscross it through the dough roll to make a round.

Place dough rounds in a 9-inch pan, cover, and let rise about 1 hour. Bake in an oven set to 350 F for 35 minutes. Cool.

Stir together the powdered sugar and milk in a small bowl. Drizzle glaze over cinnamon rolls.

APPLE PECAN BREAD PUDDING

- 8-ounces day-old cinnamon rolls, cubed
- 1/2 cup chopped pecans
- 1 cup sliced, peeled apples
- 2 eggs
- 2 cups milk
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
- 1/2 cup sugar, if desired
- Maple syrup

Coat an 8- or 9-inch cake pan with nonstick spray. Place the bread cubes in the pan, and toss in the pecans and apples. Blend the eggs, milk and sugar (optional) in a medium bowl. Add vanilla.

Pour the mixture over the bread and let stand for about 20 minutes. Bake in an oven set to 350 F for about 45 minutes, until golden brown. Cut into squares to serve. Serve with warm maple syrup.

Now Here's A Tip by JoAnn Derson

- "Leftover dry erase calendars make good bingo card bases. Cut out a five by five section, and use a permanent marker to fill the squares with small random numbers. Make matching call cards from the unused squares. Place the call cards in a sandwich baggie and the rest in a larger plastic bag. Include a couple dry erase markers, and you have a set that can be used anywhere (ours is in the car) over and over again." - E.W. and S.D. in Oregon

- If you keep a couple of crackers in your sugar jar, they will keep the sugar from caking.
- "Depending on how you scoop it, you can end up with too much or too little flour. Here is a tip about getting the best amount every time. Give the flour a stir with a spoon and then lightly spoon it into a measuring cup. When it is heaped over, use a knife to level out the measure without tamping down." - Y.E. in Arkansas
- Boiling potatoes? Plants love starch. Let your cooking water cool, then use it to water the plants in your garden.
