Outdoor Opportunities*By COL (Ret.) Grey D. Berrier II*Is the "G.A.O.S" the "G.O.A.T."? You Need to Check It Out Sometime to Decide.

Words have meaning and it is interesting how that meaning can change over time. It used to be, when you called someone a "goat," it implied a negative connotation, like they were a failure or caused a loss. Kind of a shortened version of "scapegoat." Many do not know this, but at the U.S. Military Academy (West Point), the cadets with lower Grade Point Averages compete to be "the Goat." Which, is the individual graduating absolutely last in their class who is viewed with respect for their persistence in overcoming challenges and receives a sizable pot of money from their classmates as a consolation prize.

It is often attributed to Muhammed Ali for completely flipping the meaning of the word to the "Greatest of All Time," and it was popularized by rapper LL Cool J, whereby the "G.O.A.T" is now someone or something at the pinnacle of their sport, profession, or field. I'm sure you've heard sports talk show discussions about Tom Brady is the "G.O.A.T" of NFL quarterbacks or Michael Jordan is the "G.O.A.T" of NBA players. I've even heard guys argue about who is the "G.O.A.T" of sports announcers.

One great thing about living in Lawrence County is the relative ease of getting to see world-class performers and artists on tour. You can go see live performances at the Pavillion at Star Lake or in downtown Pittsburgh by driving an hour or those up in Cleveland or out at the Blossom Music Center in roughly 90-minutes. However, there are some events definitely worth seeing for yourself that do not go on tour and happen at only one place once a year. I don't know how often you make it out to Harrisburg, but there is a lot to see and do in our state capital region. Pennsylvania is blessed to have the Farm Show Complex, just outside downtown, that has grown over the years to over 24-acres (approximately one million square feet) under roof, and is designed to accommodate the PA Farm Show, one of the largest annual agricultural expositions in the United States, which happens every year in January. Next year, the 111th PA Farm Show is scheduled for January 9-16, 2027 and it is definitely worth seeing for yourself.

However, this is an outdoor column and the "G.O.A.T." of outdoor expositions just wrapped up at the PA Farm Show Complex and I hope you were able to make the trip out to Harrisburg. The Great American Outdoor Show (G.A.O.S.) is promoted as "The World's Largest Outdoor Show" since the massive event sponsored by the National Rifle Association (NRA) draws approximately 250,000 visitors each year over its nine-day run.

The 2026 show ran Saturday, February 7, through Sunday, February 15. Amongst the 11 interconnected buildings there was something of interest for everyone and fun for the entire family. There were activities, competitions, how-to seminars, musical performances, meet & greets, industry representatives, vendors with anything outdoor-related (gear, clothing, & accessories), and guides from across the United States, Canada, Africa, and South America offering excursions for game mammals, birds, and fish. Whatever you were looking for and whatever your budget, you could find it.

Imagine a massive complex larger than your typical shopping mall, where everything is outdoor-related. We're talking thousands of individual booths and displays. Depending upon which of the three entrances you came in determined what order you saw the extravaganza. Going from left to right on the visitors map provided, there are: (1) Seminar Rooms; (2) Hunting Outfitters Hall; (2) Outdoor Product Hall West; (3) Small Arena for Demonstrations; (4) Outdoor Product Hall East; (5) Outdoor Lifestyle Hall; (6) Fishing Hall; (7) Boat Hall; (8) Large Arena for Special Events; (9) Archery Range Hall; (10) Archery Hall; and (11) Shooting Sports Hall. I'll be the first to admit it's a challenge to see everything in one day.

As President of the PA Outdoor Writers Association, I had the privilege of traveling out to Harrisburg and helping man our POWA booth at the Great American Outdoor Show on Thursday, Feb. 12, and Friday, Feb. 13; and then I returned on Sunday, Feb. 15, for our POWA 42nd Annual Sportsman's Auction to raise money for our Youth Field Day grant program. My responsibilities kept me from visiting roughly half of the entire show and I've made a promise to myself to take one entire day next year to walk around in order to see and experience it all. With everyone wearing distinct hats and shirts, I only encountered two families from our area, who were proudly displaying "Lawrence County Sportsman's Association" attire. I hope you had the opportunity to make a trip out to the 2026 Great American Outdoor Show and if you didn't, I highly encourage you to mark the dates of February 6-14, 2027 for next year's "G.O.A.T" of outdoor expositions on your calendar and then go yourself!

God Bless, Be Safe, and Great Outdoors!

Our Daily Bread

Walking Anew

Now you are the people of God. 1 Peter 2:10
READ 1 Peter 2:9-12

Applause rang out as a school's top students received certificates of excellence for academic achievement. But the program wasn't over. The next award celebrated students who weren't the school's "best," but instead were most improved. They'd worked hard to raise a failing grade, correct disruptive behavior, or improved attendance. Their parents beamed and applauded.

The heart-lifting scene offers a small picture of how our heavenly Father sees us—not in our old life but now, in Christ, as His children. "Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God," wrote John (John 1:12).

What a loving perspective! So Paul reminded new believers that once "you were dead in your transgressions and sins" (Ephesians 2:1). But in fact, "we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do" (v. 10).

In this way, Peter wrote, we are "a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's special possession, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light," and we are now "the people of God" (1 Peter 2:9-10). Through God's eyes, our old path has no claim on us. Let's see ourselves as God does—and walk anew. By Patricia Raybon

Strange But True

by Lucie Winborne

- Korean college students once launched a protest against the amount of air in potato chip bags by building a raft out of them and sailing it across a river.
- A violin known as "the Blackbird," carved entirely from stone, produces sound comparable to traditional wooden violins.

Kovels

Antiques and Collecting by Terry and Kim Kovel

Q: I am closing an old country store. I have two "wooden molds for barrels or baskets" and would like to know if they are worth anything.
A: The "country store" look is a popular decorating style. Molds for baskets or barrels may interest collectors of antique tools, or a collector may want to display them as folk art. Some basket molds can sell for high prices. Basket makers' tools without a known maker, date and origin sell for lower prices. Smaller, unsigned basket molds can sell for less than $50. We recommend contacting an auction house that specializes in Americana, country antiques or folk art.

by JoAnn Derson

• “Diaper rash hurts. The best medicine, in my opinion, is a little diaper-free time for baby. But there are times when it’s not practical to let the little one go about pants-free. When you just can’t air-dry an angry baby bottom, you can help dry the skin up with a couple minutes of warm air from a hair dryer.” – P.M.
 • Store plastic wrap in the refrigerator or even freezer to keep it from sticking to itself.

• Use an old vegetable peeler in the shop to sharpen pencils.
 • “I purchased a roll of reflective tape to mark our basement stairs. It reflects the light from the open doorway at the top of the stairs, and I can turn the downstairs lights off before heading up. I had some leftover, so I put a strip on my dog’s collar. When I let him out at night, I can shine a flashlight and spot him instantly, since the tape is more visible in the night.” – V.R. in Pennsylvania

• “I am an avid craft sewer. One trick I have used that was passed down from my mother is to save the bar soap when it gets to a sliver. Then I use it to trace patterns on cloth. I like it better than chalk. It makes a clear mark that ‘sticks.’ But it will wash right out when you are done.” – I.W. in Kansas
