Here's a simple name game to play with your kids as you prepare this treat: Think of food and recipes named after people. There's Melba toast named after Nellie Melba, a famous Australian opera singer from the 19th century; oysters Rockefeller; fettuccine Alfredo; and of course Granny Smith apples! Her apple is ideal for a quick-to-prepare dessert called Tarte Tatin, which is named after the French Tatin sisters.

While kids who are able to handle a peeler or a small knife peel core the apples, tell them that years ago in France, Stephanie Tatin was making a pie in such a hurry that she mistakenly put the apples in the pan before the pastry. She added the pastry on top so that it wouldn't go to waste. A new caramelized upside-down apple pie was created!

Bake an Apple Tarte Tatin

APPLE TARTE TATIN

Makes 8 servings
 – 4-5 apples, such as Granny Smith or Golden Delicious
 – 3/4 cup sugar
 – 1 rolled-dough pie crust (homemade or purchased from the refrigerated section of your store)

Heat the oven to 375 F. Peel the apples, cut in half, and core with a melon baller, if you have one. Slice 2 of the halves into quarters lengthwise.

In an ovenproof 10-inch skillet, an adult should heat the sugar over medium-high heat until it begins to caramelize. Reduce to medium heat and keep an eye on it at all times as it transforms into a golden liquid; be sure not to let it darken too much.

Remove the pan from heat and arrange the apple halves tightly, cut side down, in a circular fashion. Fill in the spaces and center with quarter slices. Cook on medium-high heat for about 10-15 minutes, or until the apples soften.

Use a fork to turn the softened apples cut side up on the skillet and carefully drape the pie crust dough evenly over the top. With a spatula, slightly tuck the dough under the apples. Poke a hole in the center with the tip of a knife.

Bake for 20-25 minutes, or until the crust is lightly golden. Remove from oven and cover the skillet with a large serving plate. Hold the pan and plate together using pot holders, and flip with a steady movement, keeping the tart in one piece. (Note: The liquid is extremely hot.) Remove skillet to reveal the dessert.

Cool. Serve with vanilla or cinnamon-spice ice cream.

Cook's Note: If you don't have an ovenproof skillet, add the caramelized sugar and semi-cooked apples to a standard greased pie pan. Cover with pie crust and continue as described above.

Outdoor Opportunities

By COL (Ret.) Grey D. Berrier II

Make FBC's 22nd Annual Sportsmen's Dinner Part of Your Preseason Preparations!

If you're like me, I'm sure you'll be very happy when the preseason is finally over and the regular season actually arrives. Now, you may think I'm talking about the National Football League (NFL) as they wind down training camps, complete their remaining exhibition games, and make their final roster cuts; but I'm not. I'm referring to the many steps avid hunters are going through to prepare for the upcoming 2026-27 hunting seasons, here in PA. It all started back on June 22 when our new 2026-27 PA hunting licenses went on sale and the first round of PA antlerless licenses opened for resident hunters.

Over July and August there have been the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th rounds of antlerless licenses, numerous hours of practice with bows, crossbows, rifles, shotguns, and muzzleloaders, the inspection and preparation of assorted pieces of clothing, footwear, and gear, and the purchase of any necessary outdoor-related items. Besides scouting, placing trail cameras, reading hunting-related articles, magazines, and books, in addition to watching hunting-related YouTube videos, what else can you be doing to pass the time and mentally prepare before Fall finally arrives? Well, here in Lawrence County, one of the best ways to get ready is to gather with fellow like-minded outdoorsmen, women, and youths at First Baptist Church's 22nd Annual Sportsmen's Dinner on Sat., September 19, 2026. This FREE event, held each year on the third Sat. of September, has become a staple part of preseason preparations and you are warmly invited!

Everyone is welcome, but you do need to obtain a free ticket in advance (so they know how many guests will be attending their delicious dinner). First Baptist Church is located at 984 W. Maitland Lane, New Castle, PA. You can obtain your ticket(s) by calling the church office at (724) 658-2507, 9 AM - 4 PM, Monday - Friday. (Sorry, no voicemail registrations will be accepted.) Other options include visiting the church office in person during office hours, registering with an FBC Member, or registering online at the church's website: www.fbcnc.org Once you've obtained a free ticket, let me explain what goes on.

On Sat., Sep. 19, the doors open at 5 PM (though many guests line up in advance), and everyone proceeds through the registration tables, before having the opportunity to circulate amongst the many informative displays in the lobby. Around 5:40 PM, everyone is ushered into the sanctuary for welcoming remarks and the blessing of the meal, before the hundreds of attendees are directed in an orderly fashion downstairs, where some 50 volunteers efficiently serve a delicious meal to everyone in under an hour. (This year's entrée is roast beef and dessert will be assorted pies, which are always a big hit with diners!)

After the meal, things really get rolling, as FBC's Organizational Committee has five different seminars locked in. Each presenter will conduct two 30-minute sessions, so everyone can choose whatever sessions they want to learn more about. This year's offerings include: (1) Jerry Bush - Tips for Enthusiastic Hunting; (2) Mike Lewis - Handguns for Shooting, Self-Defense, and Home Protection; (3) Ted Montgomery - What I've learned After Harvesting 106 Whitetails; (4) PGC Biologist Jared Marzka - All About PA Whitetail Deer; and (5) Grey Berrier - Tips on Turning Your Harvest into Tasty Table Fare.

My seminar for this year is the result of a conversation I had with a friend after last year's Sportsmen's Dinner, who mentioned there weren't any seminars in past years of interest to nonhunting spouses who want to attend with their hunting partners. Here's a summary of what I plan to cover. "Filling your tag or small game pouch is only part of the equation. What happens afterwards determines whether you, family members, friends, or guests enjoy eating the game harvested. If you are a hunter, cook, or both, come learn time-tested tips on making the game animals God provides, a nutritious meal you'll be proud to serve and consume. Learn some cooking methods and recipes to make your next harvest delicious!"

Once the seminars conclude, everyone will reconvene in the sanctuary for this year's Keynote Speaker, Jeremy Lutz. An avid hunter himself, his message will hit home with most hunters, since his subject matter is "The Stories We Tell." Who doesn't love vicariously living out someone else's hunting exploits as they share the vivid details! After Jeremy's message, once again there will be a variety of giveaways and an assortment of door prizes. Long-time Organizational Committee Chairman and my friend Gary Weimer asked me to stress everyone is welcome to attend FBC's 22nd Annual Sportsmen's Dinner. That includes men, women, and youths of all ages and experience levels, even if you've never hunted a day in your life and just want to know more. Hope to see you there!

and Great Outdoors!

Bible Verses

Romans 3 19-28

Now we know that whatever the law says, it says to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced and the whole world held accountable to God.

Therefore no one will be declared righteous in God's sight by the works of the law; rather, through the law we become conscious of our sin.

But now apart from the law the righteousness of God has been made known, to which the Law and the Prophets testify.

This righteousness is given through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no difference between Jew and Gentile, for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and all are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus.

God presented Christ as a sacrifice of atonement, through the shedding of his blood—to be received by faith. He did this to demonstrate his righteousness, because in his forbearance he had left the sins committed beforehand unpunished he did it to demonstrate his righteousness at the present time, so as to be just and the one who justifies those who have faith in Jesus.

Where, then, is boasting? It is excluded. Because of what law? The law that requires works? No, because of the law that requires faith.

For we maintain that a person is justified by faith apart from the works of the law.

DEAR PAW'S CORNER:
My 2-year-old Bassett Hound, "Harlan," is allergic to something, but we aren't sure what it is. He's got hot spots, especially on his stomach and hind quarters, and he's broken the skin in some places from scratching and biting. Our veterinarian says to treat him for fleas and has prescribed an antibiotic for the scratches. I'm wondering if there is more going on. What do you recommend? – Jake S. in Wheeling, West Virginia

DEAR JAKE: I'm sorry to hear that Harlan is suffering. Allergies can be a real pain, and finding the source can take time.

Eliminating fleas and treating the sores and hot spots is the first step in the process of determining what is causing a pet's allergic reaction. If Harlan responds well to this treatment and has no further problems, that's great. If he doesn't, the next move is to gradually rule out other potential allergens until the culprit is found.

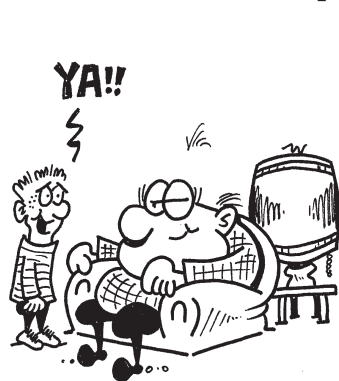

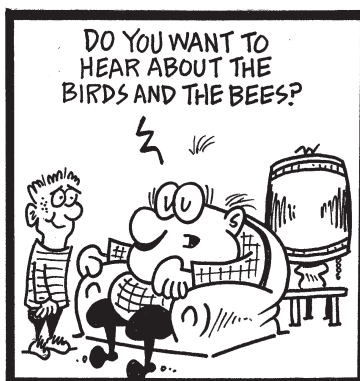

Dogs and cats can have histamine reactions – redness, swelling, sneezing, itching – to three primary culprits: fleas, food and environment. Some very effective flea treatments have been developed over the past several years, so this is the easiest allergy to treat. Food and environmental allergies are tougher.

What I recommend for pet owners who are dealing with the itching, hot spots and general misery of an allergy, is to contact their vet and follow their instructions on treatment. Reduce dust and pollen inside the home by vacuuming frequently. Treat all your furry pets for fleas, if you haven't done so yet.

And get out your notebook. You'll need to write down your pet's reaction, behaviors and symptoms to start forming a picture of the allergies they may have. ©2026 King Features Synd., Inc.

Our Daily Bread

Conquering Mountains

Go in peace, for we have sworn friendship with each other in the name of the Lord. 1 Samuel 20:42
READ 1 Samuel 20:35-42

You may have seen or heard some variation of this saying: "If you want to go fast, go alone. But if you want to go far, go together." It's a lovely thought, isn't it? But is there any solid research to reassure us that these words are not just lovely, but true?

Yes! In fact, one such study by British and American researchers demonstrated that people estimated the size of mountains as significantly smaller if they were standing with someone else as opposed to when standing alone. In other words, "social support" matters—so much so that it causes even the size of mountains to shrink in our minds.

David found that kind of encouragement to be both lovely and true in his friendship with Jonathan. The jealous anger of King Saul was like an insurmountable mountain in David's story causing him to fear for his very life (see 1 Samuel 19:9-18). Without some sort of support—in this case his closest friend—the story could have been drastically different. But Jonathan, "grieved at his father's shameful treatment of David" (20:34), stood by his friend. "Why should he be put to death?" he asked (v. 32). Their God-ordained friendship bolstered David, allowing him to become Israel's king. Our friendships matter. And when God is at the center of them, we can spur each other on to do greater things than we might imagine. By John Blase

REFLECT and PRAY
Where are you finding your social support?
Who can you support with your friendship?

Thank You, Father, for those You've placed in my life who've kept the mountains in perspective.

Strange But True

by Lucie Winborne

- Around 400 B.C., the Greek inventor Archytas of Tarentum built an early "robot" – a wooden pigeon that flew on a steam-powered arm.
- Early in her career, model Gisele Bundchen was told she'd never achieve success without cosmetic surgery to decrease her nose size. She refused and later had the last laugh by becoming one of the most highly paid models in history.
- Actor Daniel Craig, as a reward for playing James Bond, can choose any Aston Martin from the factory for the rest of his life.
- The fear of vegetables is called "lachanophobia."

Now Here's A Tip by JoAnn Derson

• Make a floating noodle cooler for your pool with this easy trick: You'll need a plastic container, a bungee cord or length of rope that will wrap around the container and a pool noodle cut into four pieces, no longer than the sides of the container. Run the cord or rope through the noodle pieces, line noodle pieces along sides of container, and secure rope or cord tightly an inch or so lower than the container's lip. Toss in pool, fill with drinks and ice, and enjoy.

Each numbered row contains two clues and two 6-letter answers. The two answers differ from each other by only one letter, which has already been inserted. For example, if you change the A from MASTER for an I, you get MISTER. Do not change the order of the letters. Answers on page 3.
