Each numbered row contains two clues and two 6-letter answers. The two answers differ from each other by only one letter, which has already been inserted. For example, if you change the A from MASTER for an I, you get MISTER. Do not change the order of the letters. Answers on page 9. ©2026 King Features Synd., Inc.

Outdoor OpportunitiesBy COL (Ret.) Grey D. Berrier IIIn the Spring it's T'n'T, but in the Fall T'n'D Can Be an Equally Explosive Combination!

Those individuals who are passionate about the outdoors have internal calendars always counting down to eagerly anticipated seasons in their minds. I'm not talking about the traditional astronomical or meteorological seasons of Spring, Summer, Winter, and Fall. I'm referring to what they love to do, such as hunting, fishing, boating, camping, or hiking. Those activities, typically have official or unofficial "Opening Days," that fall around the same time each year. The latter part of Winter is when people talk the most about "Cabin Fever" and their eager desire to get outdoors more once the weather improves.

To take advantage of that pent-up desire, advertisers and retailers will typically start their marketing campaigns in early March announcing that T'n'T is coming! That time of year, every outdoorsman, woman, and youth know that means Trout and Turkeys are coming with PA's statewide trout season now opening on the first Sat. in April and PA's Spring bearded-bird only season opening on the last Sat. in April or first Sat. in May depending upon how the calendar falls. It has become a tradition, especially during the first two weeks of Spring turkey season, when you can only hunt turkeys until Noon, to combine turkey hunting and trout fishing into a "two-for-one" outing. I know many folks who head to their camps with both their shotguns and their fishing equipment at that time of year to get in some morning turkey hunting and some afternoon trout fishing on the same day. I have a friend, a fellow PA outdoor writer, who has taken it to the extreme and has called turkeys while casting for brook trout in remote mountain streams with his shotgun rested against a nearby tree anticipating a gobbler's approach.

It's always puzzled me why that combination approach to outdoor activities isn't as prevalent in practice or in marketing at other times of the year. October has always been my favorite month of the year because there is so much to do outdoors as the weather begins to cool down and the leaves begin their colorful transition before falling to the ground. At times, it can be difficult to decide what to do as fish instinctively feed aggressively to prepare for Winter, hunting seasons like archery deer, small game, and waterfowl open, and hiking/paddling opportunities abound to explore outdoors amidst the Fall foliage. I've always wondered why so many avid outdoor individuals completely put away their fishing rods once the time comes for them to take their bows in their hands. They don't have to be exclusive, there are many opportunities to experience your own Fall combination fishing and hunting excursion, somewhere in PA.

What got me thinking about how blessed we are, is my experience last Fri., Oct. 2. On the eve of our Oct. 3 PA archery deer opener, a friend invited me to join him up on Oil Creek for some trout fishing. Eric used to own a camp near Oil Creek State Park and has repeatedly told me how good the fishing is in the two Delayed Harvest Artificial Lures Only areas on Oil Creek, one near the Drake Well Museum and the other at Petroleum Center. We had made plans months in advance to fish on Oct. 2 and unfortunately, he came down with a cold at the last minute. Having saved the day, owning a good GoreTex jacket, and knowing the rain wouldn't bother the trout, I still made the 80-minute drive up on my own. When I arrived at 9:30 AM, it was raining pretty steadily, but a park pavilion made for a convenient spot to don my chest waders and rig up my rod. When I walked to the water, there were other fishermen 150-yards upstream and 100-yards downstream, but I had a section all to myself. Based on Eric's guidance, I went with a light spinning rod and in-line spinners. Over the course of 4.5-hours, I caught and released 28 rainbow trout. They looked like they were clones, with 22 of them measuring 14-inches and all chunky, healthy trout. I reeled in a few that were an inch or two shorter and a few that were an inch or two longer. I did notice how other fishermen progressively got closer to me as the time went by. I used a black Panther Martin to catch roughly 1/3 of the trout, while the majority took a FireTiger pattern Rooster Tail.

This October, allow me to coin a phrase: T'n'D or Trout and Deer can be your objective when you head afield over the next few weeks. Locally, the Delayed Harvest Artificial Lures Only area on Neshannock Creek has received a Fall stocking, so why not consider hitting the water for trout, along with spending some time in your tree stand pursuing a deer. Trout and Deer aren't the only combination you can put together. I've floated the Shenango River in my canoe (with stabilizing outrigger pontoons) in my orange hat/shirt casting for small-mouth bass and watching for squirrels in the trees. Let your imagination be your guide to create your own Fall outdoor combination this year!

Strengthen Your Connections to People Around You

And Hear The Sounds That Matter

Are your hearing aids compatible with the latest Bluetooth technology called Auracast? Many churches, halls, auditoriums, events, theaters and airports are now equipping their systems to allow audio streaming to go directly into hearing aids. No longer will you struggle to hear or have to sit close to the speaker. If you purchased hearing aids at my practice you more than likely have this feature. Even if you bought elsewhere, we can connect that new generation of audio streaming to your existing hearing aids if that feature is available. And we will do it at no extra charge... Just Because We Care.

Getting Rid of Baggage

Esau ran to meet Jacob and embraced him.
Genesis 33:4 READ Genesis 33:1-11

In college, I studied William Shakespeare's writing for a semester. The class required a giant textbook containing everything Shakespeare had ever written. The book weighed several pounds, and I had to carry it for hours at a time. Lugging that weight around caused my back to hurt, and it eventually broke a metal fastener on my bookbag!

Some things are just too heavy for us to carry. Emotional baggage from past hurt, for example, can weigh us down with bitterness and hatred. But God wants us to have freedom through forgiving people and, when possible, reconciling with them (Colossians 3:13). The deeper the pain, the longer this may take. That's okay. It took many years for Esau to forgive Jacob for stealing his birthright and blessing (Genesis 27:36).

When the two finally reunited, Esau graciously forgave his brother and even "embraced him" (33:4). Not a word was exchanged before they both burst into tears. Over time, Esau had let go of the anger that made him consider murder (27:41). And all those years gave Jacob the chance to see the magnitude of how he'd harmed his brother. He was humble and respectful throughout the reunion (33:8-11).

In the end, both brothers came to the place where neither required anything from the other (vv. 9, 15). It was enough to forgive and be forgiven and walk away free from the heavy baggage of the past. By Jennifer Benson Schultdt

REFLECT and PRAY

What types of offenses are hardest for you to forgive? How does forgiving others reflect your relationship with your heavenly Father?

Dear God, please set me free from bitterness and anger.

Strange But True

by Lucie Winborne

• Early sodas were marketed as cure-alls for impotence, stomach pain, scurvy, alcoholism, opium addictions, nervousness and more.
• According to the Giant Impact theory, a Mars-size planet struck a blow to Earth and splashed off rocks and debris into space, creating a huge ring that later formed the moon.

ELLWOOD
Crankshaft Group

YOUR SKILLS. YOUR FUTURE.
BUILT ON HARD WORK.
BUILT TO LAST.

Since 1910, Ellwood has built a proud tradition of American manufacturing, skilled craftsmanship and doing the job right.

At Ellwood Crankshaft Group, we make large, heavy-duty crankshafts that help power equipment used around the world. Our work can be found in locomotives, ships, pumps, compressors, power generation equipment and military vehicles.

From forging and heat treating to precision machining and finishing, our team members use their skills to create products built to perform for years to come.

Today, we're looking for dependable, hardworking people who take pride in a job well done and want the opportunity to learn valuable skills, earn a good living and build a long-term career.

No manufacturing experience? That's OK. For many positions, we provide the training you need to learn the job and succeed.

BUILD SOMETHING THAT MATTERS.

• When you want to be sure that while meat is frozen, it maintains its best taste. Use this tip to vacuum seal your meat without any special equipment! Add meat pieces to a plastic, zipper-top bag. Fill a large pot several inches deep with water. Seal the bag, but leave an inch or so unsealed. As you lower the bag into the water (zipper top up) the air will escape through the unsealed portion. When no air remains, seal the bag and then remove from the water.

Now Here's A Tip by JoAnn Derson

• "To make an eraser for our dry-erase board, I cut a washcloth in half and folded it into a rectangle. Then I used a magnetic chip clip (with a strong magnet) to hold the open ends of the cloth. I can use the magnetic clip as a handle and it's stored right on the board." – D.I. in Arizona
