fun. My roommate says that parties aren't a great environment for dogs, and Skip could be traumatized by all the noise. What do you say? – Carl in Brooklyn

DEAR CARL: Listen to your roommate. Terriers are energetic dogs who love attention, but a loud, crowded party is stressful for any dog. It's also difficult to keep tabs on where Skip is and what he might be eating. If there is stray chocolate sitting within reach, for example, he might ingest it and get really sick. Ditto for rich party foods with lots of cream, herbs, salt, onions or garlic – all these things can be dangerous for dogs, especially a little guy like Skip.

A better alternative is to keep Skip in your bedroom for most of the night, away from the party, with a nice bed, toys and fresh water. Stop in every hour to say hello, if you'd like.

You can put Skip into his costume and bring him out to meet the guests, but only for about 10 to 15 minutes. And if he begins showing signs of distress – trembling, barking at everyone, growling or snapping – take him back to the room right away. Take off the costume after his visit, so that he is comfortable and doesn't get tangled up in the fabric or chew on any dangling appendages, if the costume has any.

With a little planning, you can still show off Skip in his costume and have a party that is enjoyable for you and safe for him.

100 Amp main breaker panel, 20 circuits with breakers, great for garage camp or small home $30; 724-730-3402

• RECIPE • Pumpkin Pancakes

1 ½ C. milk
1 C. pumpkin puree
1 large egg
2 Tbsp. vegetable oil
2 Tbsp. vinegar
2 C. all-purpose flour
3 Tbsp. brown sugar
2 tsp. baking powder
1 tsp. baking soda
1 tsp. ground allspice
1 tsp. ground cinnamon
½ tsp. ground ginger
½ tsp. salt
cooking spray as needed

Whisk milk, pumpkin, egg, oil, and vinegar together in a large bowl until well combined. Whisk flour, sugar, baking powder, baking soda, allspice, cinnamon, ginger, and salt together in a medium bowl. Whisk into pumpkin mixture until no dry streaks remain. Spray a griddle or skillet with cooking spray; heat over medium-high heat. Pour 3 to 4 tablespoons batter for each pancake onto the griddle; flatten slightly. Cook until small bubbles form on surface, and edges look set, 2 to 3 minutes. Flip and cook until golden, about 2 minutes more. Repeat with remaining batter. Variations: 1) Add chocolate chips 2) Add chopped walnuts or pecans 3) Fold in diced apples or dried cranberries.

Kovels

Antiques and Collecting by Terry and Kim Kovel

Q: How can I find out the value of a bracelet I inherited? It is 14K gold and has a Bliss Brothers mark.

A: For jewelry made of precious metals like gold, it's important to know the melt-down value. This is the wholesale value of the metal (and gems, if there are any) if the piece were destroyed and the material were sold for scrap.

You can find online "karat calculators" where you can enter the weight of your bracelet (most give the option of grams or ounces) and the purity of the gold (in your case, 14K) to find its melt-down value. The value depends on the weight of the jewelry and the current price of gold. Never sell a piece of jewelry for less than its melt-down value.

There are gold buyers who will buy jewelry for its melt-down value, but dealers who sell estate jewelry often pay higher prices. The workmanship and historic value of a piece of antique jewelry often make it worth more. A known maker's mark usually increases the value, too.

Bliss Brothers is a well-known jewelry maker. The company started in 1873 as Bliss Brothers & Everett. The name changed to Bliss Brothers Co. about 1887. They are known for their enameled compacts and gold-filled jewelry, but they also made some solid gold jewelry.

• TIP: Most old majolica pieces have a colored bottom. The newer pieces have white bottoms.

Our Daily Bread

Pause to Pray

In every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. Philippians 4:6 READ Philippians 4:4-9

A meteorologist in Mississippi went viral for uttering six simple yet profound words during his weather forecast on March 24, 2023.

Matt Laubhan was tracking a severe storm when he realized a catastrophic tornado was about to bear down on the town of Amory. That's when Laubhan paused on live TV to say this prayer heard worldwide: "Dear Jesus, please help them. Amen." Some viewers later said that prayer prompted them to take cover. His spontaneous and heartfelt prayer may have helped save countless lives.

Our prayers can make a difference too. They don't have to be long-winded. They can be short and sweet and can be said at any time of the day. Whether we're at work, running errands, or on vacation, we can "pray continually" (1 Thessalonians 5:17).

God loves to hear us pray throughout the day. The apostle Paul reminds us that we don't have to be prisoners of worry or fear but can take all our cares and concerns to God: "Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4:6-7).

Whether we're enjoying a sunny day or being hit by the literal or figurative storms of life, let's remember to pause and pray throughout the day. By Nancy Gavilanes

REFLECT and PRAY

How can you be more intentional about praying throughout the day? How has your prayer life grown over the years?

Heavenly Father, thank You that I can pray to You at any time.

Now Here's A Tip by JoAnn Derson

• "My son was allergic to something in store-bought toothpaste. I got a "recipe" to make toothpaste and it works so well that we all use it now. Just mix 1/2 cup of baking soda with a pinch of sea salt and some peppermint oil. A few drops at a time and stirred in. I keep it in a jar with a tight-fitting lid. Shake a bit into a little cup and dip your toothbrush into it. It scrubs off stains and is refreshing. The salty taste takes some getting used to, but it feels really clean for hours. Love it!" – K.S. in Florida

Outdoor Opportunities

By COL (Ret.) Grey D. Berrier II

As October Closes and Leaves Us,
Unfortunately the Leaves are Leaving Us Too!

I sincerely hope you were not too busy to notice what has been going on all around us. Weather-wise, October 2026 has been one of the most pleasant months we've experienced in a long time, when it comes to temperatures and precipitation. I've stated it here before, but October has always been my favorite month of the year and this one we've just went through definitely put an exclamation point on why I love October. The cool nights just above freezing, the comfortable daytime highs in the 60's, and the below average precipitation produced a most vibrant array of Fall foliage in vivid reds, oranges, yellows, and an assortment of browns, which stuck around on the trees longer than average and made drives across town, through the countryside, and traversing the interstates an eye-captivating experience for all beholders.

It's interesting how falling leaves mean different things to different people, often based on their age. Some of my earliest memories of leaves involve going for long walks with either my parents or my grandparents and picking up colorful leaves to put them in a paper lunch bag, so I could have a leaf collection. I learned early how to identify a maple leaf, an oak leaf, an elm leaf, and even a sassafras leaf with its unique mitten-shaped leaves. Some of my earliest pre-kindergarten artwork involved crudely tracing around the various leaves I collected and then coloring them in (I struggled to stay within the lines). Other times, my mom or dad would patently pause after raking the leaves into large piles, so my sister, brother, and I could dive into them and play until our hearts were content. As an adult, I did the same thing for our children and came to appreciate how much of a chore raking leaves can be, especially when you have a lot of trees on your property. However, don't miss the joy of playing with your children or grandchildren in the leaves and possibly use the opportunity to teach them basic leaf identification.

It was only appropriate the extensive natural color display provided the backdrop for one of our busiest outdoor weekends in PA of the entire year. October 24 was opening day for hunting pheasants and trapping for coyote, fox, opossum, raccoon, skunk, and weasels, but also provided opportunities for archery deer, archery bear, muzzleloader antlerless deer, muzzleloader bear, antlerless deer special firearms, bear special firearms, and ongoing small game seasons for squirrel, grouse, and rabbits. It was probably the weekend with the most varied hunting opportunities of the entire year. Additionally, it was perfect weather for fishing, kayaking, canoeing, hiking, biking, camping, boating, and ATV/UTV riding. Based on all the various individuals I saw out pursuing the outdoor activity of their choosing and the wide variety of outdoor gear going by on vehicles and trailers, it solidified how difficult it can be to decide just what to do this time of year with all the possibilities available. It was an ideal time to combine as many outdoor pursuits as possible into a single outing, such as camping and hunting, or canoeing and fishing.

Sometimes, when there are so many options, someone else's choice can negatively impact your decision or you can make the wrong choice. Thursday, Oct. 22, found me in an afternoon tree stand in a swamp in Crawford County pursuing a buck. I had been in a tree for hours anticipating the big buck's appearance at sunset. Unfortunately, another outdoorsman decided that was the same day he wanted to fish the swamp at 6 PM and when the buck made its way downhill from its bedding area, it caught the fisherman's scent and hastily departed the area. I could hear the deer approaching, heard it snort when it got downwind of the fisherman, and immediately knew I had lost any chance to fill my tag. For several days, I wrestled with what I was going to do on Saturday, Oct. 24. I knew I wanted to hunt Venango County, but should I take my muzzleloader to potentially take a longer shot at a bear or an antlerless deer, or should I carry my crossbow, which would permit me to take a buck, bear, or antlerless deer. While it's legal to take both a muzzleloader and your archery gear, which works if you're on stand for an extended period, my plan was to still hunt for several hours through massive rocks and thick mountain laurel. I ended up making the wrong decision because only 20-minutes into my stealthy still hunt downhill through a hollow, I had a very respectable 8-point working his way uphill pass within 25-yards of me. He never knew I was there and I would have had a very makeable shot, if only I had my crossbow and not my muzzleloader.

At this time, when the sound of leaf blowers and the acrid smoke of burning leaves prevail, besides cleaning the leaves from your gutters, make the most of your outdoor opportunities and enjoy the foliage! Before we know it, wind and rain will bring the leaves down.

God Bless, Be Safe, and Great Outdoors!

Put "World's Best Granola" on Your Breakfast Menu

Homemade granola is tasty to eat any time of day, but in our family, it's a staple for fall breakfasts with nonfat plain yogurt and fresh fruit. Not only is granola a nutritious start to the day with its wholesome blend of heart-healthy oats and chopped nuts, but a handful makes a satisfying after-school treat with a glass of milk. Plus, a few spoonfuls add crunch to a scoop of ice cream for an evening dessert!

Granola is so easy to prepare that you and your kids can make this recipe in a jiffy – just under an hour.

DONNA ERICKSON'S
BEST BITES

While one child measures and stirs together the dry ingredients in a big bowl, another can measure, pour and stir the liquids in another. Combine all of the ingredients in the big bowl, and voila! The just-sweet-enough mixture is ready for you to spread on a baking sheet and place in the oven. Give it a try and see why the fresh taste of this homemade granola rivals any packaged mixture.

"WORLD'S BEST GRANOLA"

- Yields about 5 cups
- 3 cups old-fashioned rolled oats (not quick-cooking)
 - 1/2 cup brown sugar
 - 1 teaspoon cinnamon
 - 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 cup coarsely chopped almonds
 - 1/2 cup coarsely chopped pecans
 - 1/4 cup canola oil
 - 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
 - 2 egg whites, slightly beaten
 - 1/2 cup raisins

Here's the fun: Preheat the oven to 350 F. Line a rimmed baking sheet with parchment paper, or spray with nonstick spray.

Combine the oats, brown sugar, cinnamon, baking powder, salt and nuts in a large mixing bowl.

Stir together the oil, vanilla and egg whites in a small bowl. Add to dry ingredients and toss well.

Spread the mixture evenly on the baking sheet. Bake until golden brown, about 25-30 minutes. Cool completely; stir in raisins and store in an airtight container.

Cook's Note: If you wish, substitute 1/4 cup pure maple syrup and 1/4 cup honey for the brown sugar. Combine with liquid ingredients before tossing with dry ingredients.

Creative Tip: Let kids draw a label to tape or glue to the outside of a plastic storage container or glass jar. It might say "The Johnsons' World's Best Granola." ©2026 Donna Erickson. Distributed by King Features

SENIOR NEWS LINE

by Matilda Charles

Keep an eye on grocery prices. If you've done your grocery shopping at the same store for a long time, believing that they have the best prices in town, it might be time to revisit that thought. I just discovered that the big box store where I've shopped isn't the lower cost choice I thought it was.

©2026 King Features Synd., Inc.

I discovered this when looking at the website of the store to check availability of an item and then looked at the websites for the two other stores in town. I was shocked to see that my store was much higher in price on several of the items on my regular list. I don't know when this happened, but now that I know.

It looks like we're going to have to keep a constant eye on pricing to keep as many of our dollars as we can. Here are a few suggestions:

Compare the websites for all the stores near you. Make a little chart of the items you normally buy and see who really is the cheapest. Check your list every month.

When you do go, shop from a list. Don't let yourself be tempted to impulsively buy extra items unless you spot a great deal on an end-of-aisle display and can stock up a bit.

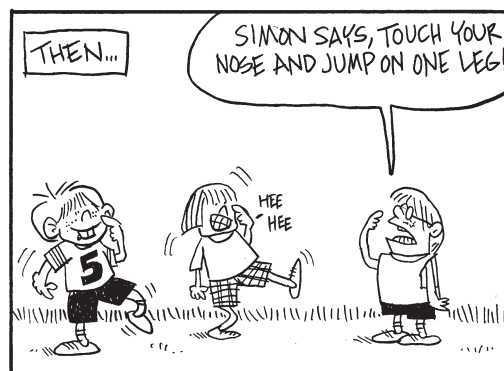

Try the store brands. In many cases store brands are actually made in brand name facilities.

Sign up for loyalty cards. The rewards from those can add up. Sometimes you'll get coupons sent via email.

Buy in bulk, if it makes financial sense to do that. And, if it makes sense, make large batches of meals you can freeze. Do the math.

And (although many of us don't like to do it) use the food bank. Let them give you what they will, and fill in the blanks with your own shopping.

Now Here's A Tip

by JoAnn Derson

• This is some good advice given to me by my grandmother if you have lots of outdoor or feral cats in your area: Start your car with a bang – on the hood, that is. When the overnight temperature dips, cats know to find someplace that is wind-shielded and off the ground, and sometimes, that means they will climb up into your engine area to hunker down. If your car starts, they can be hurt or even killed. Give the hood a knock to let a cat know to get out quick.

Now Here's A Tip

by JoAnn Derson

• Remove the annoying sticky residue from price tags with WD-40 or baby oil. This is for use only on hard surfaces. If you are unsure, test in an inconspicuous place first to make sure the oil doesn't leave a stain where the tag was.

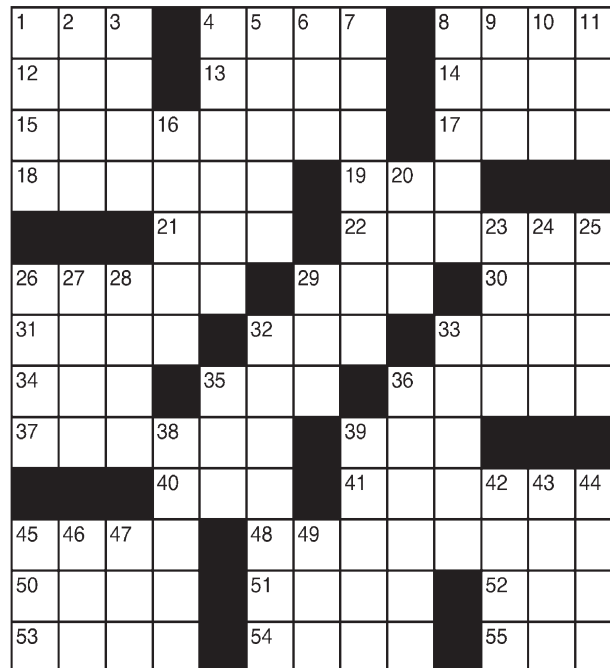

• "To remove paint or stain from hands (even oil-based), use an old dry washcloth with liquid hand soap – no water. After the paint is loose, rinse with warm water." – H.P. in WA

• RECIPE •

Double Layer Pumpkin Cheesecake

by Stephanie Phillips

Cheesecake Layer:

- 2 - 8 oz. packages cream cheese, softened
- ½ C. white sugar
- ½ tsp. vanilla extract
- 2 large eggs
- 9" prepared graham cracker crust

Pumpkin Layer:

- ½ C. pumpkin puree
- ½ tsp. ground cinnamon
- 1 pinch ground cloves, or more to taste
- 1 pinch ground nutmeg, or more to taste

Preheat oven to 325°. Beat cream cheese, sugar, and vanilla extract together in large bowl with electric mixer until smooth. Add eggs, one at a time, blending cheesecake layer until well combined after each addition. Spread 1 cup batter in crust. Add pumpkin puree, cinnamon, cloves, and nutmeg to remaining batter; stir gently until pumpkin layer is well blended. Carefully spread on top of cheesecake layer. Bake 35-40 minutes until edges puff and surface is firm except for a small spot in center that jiggles when the pan is gently shaken. Remove from oven, set on wire rack; cool 1-2 hours to room temperature. Refrigerate at least 3 hours until set. Slice and enjoy.

ELLWOOD
Crankshaft Group

YOUR SKILLS. YOUR FUTURE.
BUILT ON HARD WORK.
BUILT TO LAST.

Since 1910, Ellwood has built a proud tradition of American manufacturing, skilled craftsmanship and doing the job right.

At Ellwood Crankshaft Group, we make large, heavy-duty crankshafts that help power equipment used around the world. Our work can be found in locomotives, ships, pumps, compressors, power generation equipment and military vehicles.

From forging and heat treating to precision machining and finishing, our team members use their skills to create products built to perform for years to come.

Today, we're looking for dependable, hardworking people who take pride in a job well done and want the opportunity to learn valuable skills, earn a good living and build a long-term career.

No manufacturing experience? That's OK. For many positions, we provide the training you need to learn the job and succeed.
